

EASTON AREA SCHOOL DISTRICT

SECTION: COMMUNITY

TITLE: COMMUNITY RELATIONS

ADOPTED: December 21, 2006

REVISED:

910. COMMUNITY RELATIONS
1. Purpose	The Board feels it is imperative that communication be maintained in both directions between district schools and local institutions, organizations and groups, such as industry, business, labor, charity and others that comprise the structure of the community.
2. Authority Pol. 115, 118	The Board has authority over the students in its care but shares that authority to a limited extent through the cooperative programs that take students into the community during part of their educational career. To make those experiences meaningful, the Board feels cooperation with the community is essential. Any programs that develop from community cooperative efforts require Board approval prior to implementation.
3. Delegation of Responsibility	The Superintendent or designee shall make presentations about the district to various community and civic groups. In reviewing cooperative programs, the administration shall keep in mind that the schools shall: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Maintain an impartiality among all constituents who promote worthy causes.</li> <li>2. Not be used to promote private or commercial interests.</li> <li>3. Not be used for direct sales promotion of goods or services.</li> <li>4. Not assign students to outside tasks that do not primarily benefit the students.</li> </ol>
4. Guidelines	Resource Persons/Speakers The Board welcomes talented individuals with skills, knowledge and experiences to share for the benefit of students.

910. COMMUNITY RELATIONS - Pg. 2
